Description:

Finest Vračar is taking shape on one of Belgrade's most sought after addresses. Contemporary architecture, carefully selected natural materials and open views create a rare balance of privacy, natural light and urban living. A home designed to stand the test of time, at an address that will retain its value for years to come.

A View That Lasts.

On Vračar, where open views are a true rarity, we present homes oriented towards greenery and natural light. Contemporary architecture, carefully selected materials and thoughtful details create a space that is equally impressive today and designed to retain its value for years to come.
